

Junior Software Developer

Are you looking for a flexible student job that can make your study more relevant?
You will learn a lot and become closely involved in our core development.

Key Accountabilities

As a junior software developer, you will become an important piece in our constant search to offer our customers the best possible solutions. You will be involved in our development projects, from the initial conceptualisation, and with the overall architecture, design, implementation, testing, validation, and documentation.

Qualifications

We are always looking for highly motivated and passionate people! You have a self-driven problem-solving attitude and a curious mind. You need to thrive in a fast-paced environment because we are growing rapidly.

You have knowledge with designing, developing, deploying technology solutions. We are utilizing all the great things about Azure Hub, and therefore knowledge about solutions that leverage cloud technologies would be great.

Experiences Required

- You are preferably studying for an MSc degree
- You can work with a wide range of technological solutions and methods

What can you expect from us?

You get an exciting student job in a dynamic growth company with a strong team spirit. We believe in a flat management structure where you have the freedom to take responsibility.

Our office is located near DOKK1. We know that your study is the most important thing, and therefore we always show great flexibility around working hours.
